Ontario Passenger Volumes are expected to rise further in the coming months, Thorpe noted, as Delta Air Lines initiates Daily Nonstop Service to Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport on Monday, April 22, with a Second Roundtrip also to its Atlanta Hub beginning in June. In the same month, United Airlines will begin one Flight a Day to its Texas hub, George Bush Intercontinental Airport, while Southwest Airlines will add New Service to San Francisco International Airport with four Daily Flights. Southwest will add a third daily flight (Monday-Friday) to Denver International Airport, also in June.

Air Cargo, meanwhile, was essentially Flat in March compared to the same month a year ago, declining less than 1% from 60,200 Tons to 59,900 tons. The volume of Commercial Freight dipped Two-Tenths of one percent from 57,700 Tons to 57,500 Tons approximately. Mail Shipments decreased by 8.9%. On a Year-To-Date Basis, Air Cargo Shipments grew by almost 1% to more than 171,000 Tons compared to the first quarter of 2018.

Ontario International Airport (ONT) is the Fastest Growing Airport in the United States, according to Global Traveler, a Leading Publication for Frequent Fliers. Located in the Inland Empire, ONT is approximately 35 miles east of Downtown Los Angeles in the Center of Southern California. It is a Full-Service Airport with Nonstop Commercial Jet Service to 19 Major Airports in the U.S., Mexico and Taiwan, and connecting Service to many Domestic and International Destinations. There is an Average of 67 Daily Departures offered by nine Air Carriers.
