USPA NEWS - General Raheel Sharif & General Zubair Hayat Pakistan's Greatest Army Chiefs Team in History

The international military think tank strategist and the military intelligence chiefs have recognised Pakistan's former army Chief of Staff General Raheel Sharif and Pakistan's Chairman of the Joint Chief of Staff Zubair Hayat, as the world's outstanding and Pakistan's greatest army chief team of all times, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

Shazada Hayat is campaigning to have cities, towns, major roads, government buildings, airports and stadiums named after these and other military greats of Pakistan.

General Raheel Sharif is the nephew of Major Aziz Bhatti and brother of Major Shabbir Sharif, who were both martyred (Shaheeds) and recipients of the Nishan-e-Haider Pakistan's highest military award. General Raheel Sharif rose through the ranks to take the coveted post of Pakistan's army chief of staff of the nuclear super power nation. General Raheel Sharif has achieved the highest regards and respect from the world's finest commanders in chief. This fact was endorsed by one of Britain's finest Chief of Staff Sir Nicholas Carter who stated publicly that Pakistan's Chief of Army Staff Raheel Sharif was his mentor and an inspirational military role model.

This is an amazing declaration from General Sir Nicholas Carter, who was British Army Chief of Staff and went on to be Britain's Army Joint Chief of Staff. During the tenure of General Raheel Sharif Pakistan was blessed with the formidable Joint Chief of Staff General Zubair Mahmood Hayat.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, When Pakistan was choosing its army chief and the main two contenders were General Raheel Sharif and General Zubair Hayat. It was one of the toughest choices to make for those who were responsible for appointing and those responsible for the recommendation of the top post.

General Raheel Sharif was made Pakistan Chief of Army Staff and General Zubair Hayat was made the Chairman of Joint Chief of Staff. Which and whatever way fate went the outcome for the Pakistani nation benefited immensely as first time in history the nation had been blessed with two of the world's greatest commanders. As per the tradition of the Pakistan army they both worked together with utmost loyalty to the nation and patriotism, not only to be at the ready to defend and protect Pakistan, but also to take the image of the Pakistan armed forces and its strength to formidable heights.

General Zubair Hayat just as General Raheel Sharif brought with him also great military family history.

General Zubair Hayat was also born into a military family where his father Major General Aslam Hayat and brother Lt. Gen. OM Hayat also served with pride and patriotism in Pakistan army. The history continues, General Zubair Hayat's son Ahmed Hayat is serving as the current DG ISI. General Zubair Hayat's journey began at Pakistan military academy in Kakul, he then progressed and received advanced military and leadership training and warfare strategy in Oklahoma United States. General Zubair Hayat finished off his military training at the world famous military staff college Sandhurst Camberley United Kingdom.

He also represented Pakistan on foreign missions as a military foreign diplomat in United Kingdom and the United States. General Zubair Hayat is uniquely gifted with an eidetic memory and possesses amazing military and international and diplomatic knowledge. With vast experience and outstanding achievement at every level of his military journey General Zubair Hayat is blessed with infinite wisdom to deal with a given situation or crisis in a cool, calm and collectively manner. At the same time he has clinical razor sharp mind with devastating response if there was one needed.

Shazada Hayat said, The statistics of the two great commanders serving the nation at the paramount height at the same time speaks volumes and they have carved their names in Pakistan's golden military history. As a result of their combined and united and patriotic efforts at the high command, they took Pakistan's army, declared during their tenure, to be amongst the top ten best armies in the world.

The great generals were also responsible for promoting and taking the image of the Pakistan army to an all times high nationally and internationally. These Pakistan great generals received the nations utmost loyalty, respect and patriotism, which saw the compassion and praise for the Pakistan army go through the roof, the likes of which have never been seen or witnessed in the history of Pakistan.

The world military chiefs stood up to applaud Pakistan army supreme generals especially around the Muslim world. The various Muslim countries around the world bestow their nation's highest medal of honour on Pakistan's great generals. They have stated that General Raheel Sharif and General Zubair Hayat are not just the greatest commanders of Pakistan, but are also the pride of the Muslim world.

Hazrat Ali The Lion of God (PBUH), Hazrat Umar Farooq (PBUH) and also Salahuddin Ayubi the great commanders of the Muslim world had they met General Raheel Sharif and General Zubair Hayat, they would have most certainly with pride and patriotism embraced them both.
