Installed since January 2015 near Aleppo, the maternity berruyère Medina Association, which hosts the civilian victims of the conflict, was bombed on the night of Thursday to Friday. Three weeks after the alarming state of affairs of the situation in Syria during our meeting with Medina, the maternity of the association, present in the suburbs of Aleppo, was bombed on the night of August 11 to 12. Around 2:45 that night, the first air strikes hit twice the pediatric part of the property prior to bomb five minutes later, the obstetrics area. Source Association Medine, Aleppo
